

Peninsula Opens Four-Man Show

The Peninsula Gallery, 1714 S. Catalina, Redondo Beach, now has a show featuring work of four prominent members of the Laguna Beach Art Colony. Featured are Melva Rue, known for her poetic seascapes; James Blacketer, one of the nation's top marine artists; romantic impressionist, Anne Von; and Don Shreve, whose work was recently featured in "TV Guide." The show will continue through the month of June.

TOP WELDERS . . . Four for four was the record established by El Camino College welders, who won each of four first-place trophies in recent competition with representatives of Southland colleges. With instructor George Davis are (from left) Clarence Watson, Drew Boronda Jr., Thomas P. Ordway, and Glen Whitaker.
